Taking it to the Marsh

NOVEMBER 16TH & 30TH

Monday Night Marsh is an ongoing works-in-progress series, feature a variety of local emerging solo performers, musicians, playwrights, and entertainers of all stripes. I will be presenting three new songs in the format of my one man show "Brave Open Love". I am one of 4 performers presenting new original material!

I have new songs that I'm excited to present from my most recent artist gathering in Cornwall, England. I'll be taking you on a journey by spoken word and music to experience several different modes of expression! You can click HERE to see my last shows highlights!

When: Mondays Nov 16th & 30th at 7:30pm.

All tickets are $7, at the door only, 30 minutes before the show.

All seating for these performances are first-come, first-served.

Performances take place at the MainStage Theater (1062 Valencia Street, SF 94110-2427 — near 22nd street in the Mission)

INDIE ARTIST REVIEW

JIM AVERITT

This last January - can it be almost a year ago!? - I participated in a co-writing workshop. One of my roommates turned out to be Jim. Really a powerhouse vocally and musically. Jim hales from Bozeman, Montana. It was a great experience to hear Jim's songs and hear his duets with other performers. Jim's new CD is called "Music is Magic".

The New Band

AND THEN THERE WERE THREE (AGAIN)

We have had a change of the guard. Or at least a change of percussion. Nina our drummer for the past year has moved on to work with an all woman rock band that ROCKS!

We held a few auditions and were fortunate to find a conga afro-cuban percussion player, Clark (on the right), who recently moved to Oakland.

Grenville (on the left) is continuing on to hold down the bass notes.

It is really an honor to have dedicated musicians who are really interested in my music!

GuitViol Watch

NOVEMBER 27TH

A date has been set! I am going to drive down to Sylmar, California to meet the luthier and creator — Jonathan Wilson. I am so excited. This is a truly unique instrument and I hope will lead to new sounds, new songs and new performances!

This particular guitviol is one of seven that Jonathan is building this year and next as a part of a special series.

Playing a bowed instrument like this I'm sure will present me with new challenges, I'm sure, and I am so looking forward to this!

FOLK RADIO

As a reminder you can find my KALW Interview right here. I also was contacted recently to participate in a folk music program coming up this February. So "stay tuned" for more details!

FUND RAISING FOR YOU!

This year I've been contacted by a number of groups to participate in fund raising concerts, and my response is — YES! I know with the economy the way it is we all need to pull together. Please contact me if you are having or planning an event and you would like some great music to help pull people in and keep them entertained! Also keep an eye on my web site to see which fund raising shows I'm performing at for some really great causes.
