Jongleur November 15th

WHERE WERE YOU WHEN JONGLEUR WAS RELEASED...?

Some have been asking the question: Is the release of Jongleur, Daniel's second CD with twelve original songs, as historic and mind bending as the election of Barack Obama to President of the United States? Others have been asking how does this new studio album recorded with studio musicians and friends compare to the vote on Proposition 8 that banned gay marriage in California? Who can really answer whether the long awaited arrival of a collection of twelve well crafted songs with thought provoking lyrics will eclipse these voting decisions? We will find out on November 15th!

Can't Wait?!

JONGLEUR SONGS AVAILABLE NOW!

All of the songs from Jongleur are available now for you to listen and download. How cool is that? For those of you who want the CD you can preview the tracks and you can order at any time. November 15th is when I will be able to physically ship the CDs to you. But if you're using an mp3 player and you'd prefer to download the songs — they are ready to go!

You can listen and purchase right on the home page of my website:

These provide different listening / purchasing experiences at the various websites.

FEATURED STREAMING MEDIA WEBSITE: IMEEM

There are so many music related websites it is easy to get confused about which ones to use for what. I'm going to describe and point you to imeem as one example.

Since I am an independent artist — to find me on these websites you can go to the search field and type in my name. You'll see my picture or name. Click on me and you'll be able to hear my music and read about me.

The amazing thing is that a website like this allows independent artists to present their music to you outside of the large commercial radio / tv influence at a minimal expense.

You can find a lot of excellent new music this way and support independent artists at the same time.

Check it out!

PLEASE HELP WITH YOUR IDEAS...

I thought I had found a great idea. The concept was to create a home concert as a gift. Most folks have not yet experienced a home concert — an opportunity to have an intimate (usually acoustic) performance in your own home with a group of friends / neighbors.

I enthusiastically created a few “gift bags” with a free CD, some flyers about how to host a home concert and other variations such as a mini-serenade of 3 songs for a couple.

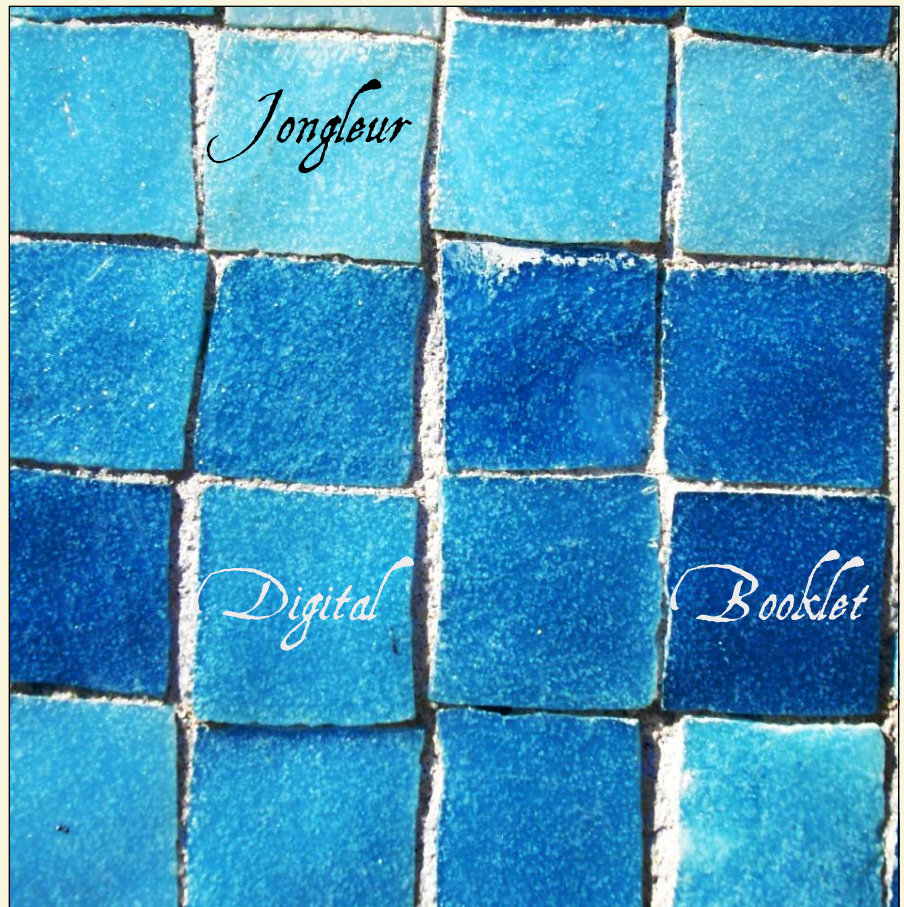

To date I have promoted and given six of these away at fund raiser events, or during gigs of mine. But only 1 recipient has followed through to set up a performance.

So I would love to get some feedback:

- 🕒 If you were awarded a home concert would you follow up?
- 🕒 What makes this idea unattractive?
- 🕒 Is there a way to make this easier, more fun?

Please contact me via email or my website and let me know your thoughts!

ORDER ONLINE – TO GET YOUR BOOKLET!

Do you love to listen to CDs while reading the lyrics? Do you like to find out who played bass on which song? Do you like to read the thank you page and find that extra info on what inspired the songs?

The Jongleur digital booklet is a great companion to the CD or downloaded files. It contains lyrics to all the songs plus some other great background and a special note about the song Brave Open Love —where and why it was written.

The only place you can get this is by ordering directly from DanielRMandel.com. As an added bonus you will get signed copies of your CDs! There is a special running right now so that you can buy both Jongleur (the new CD) and Might Be You (the 1st CD) at a price of $15.

You can also hear tracks from both CDs online. Order today for this special pricing for both CDs, and the Jongleur digital booklet.
